Gyeongbokgung Palace

SUMMER 2017

Gyeongbokgung was the main royal palace of the Joseon dynasty. Built in 1395, it is located in northern Seoul, South Korea. The largest of the Five Grand Palaces built by the Joseon dynasty, Gyeongbokgung served as the home of Kings of the Joseon dynasty, the Kings' households, as well as the government of Joseon.

Insadong

SUMMER 2017

Insadong Street is one of the most memorable attractions in Seoul and represents the focal point of Korean traditional culture and crafts. Stores in Insa-dong specialize in a wide variety of goods that can only be purchased or appreciated in Korea: hanbok (traditional clothing), hanji (traditional paper), traditional teas, pottery, and folk crafts.

Myeongdong

SUMMER 2017

Myeong-dong is one of the primary shopping districts in Seoul. Many brand name shops and department stores line the streets and alleys. Common products for sale include clothes, shoes, and accessories. Unlike Namdaemun or Dongdaemun, many designer brands are sold in Myeong-dong. In addition, several major department stores have branches here. The department stores carry many premium labels and other fashionable goods at reasonable prices.

Korean Folk-Village

SUMMER 2017

Korean Folk Village introduces traditional culture from the late Joseon period to both local and international visitors through cultural classes experience, shaman faith, seasonal customs and others. Also, the village shows various places with unique features such as a farming village, private house, official districts, Confucian academy, Seodang (village school), and a village street in realistic descriptions, as well as, a nobleman's house and traditional workshop. Performances including Nongak (farmer's music), martial art on horseback, traditional wedding ceremony, and other special events are available by season.

Namsan Tower

SUMMER 2017

Namsan Tower is 236.7 meter tower sits atop Namsan Mountain (243m). The observatory offers panoramic views of Seoul and the surrounding areas. Namsan Tower is the very place to enjoy the entire city of Seoul.

Situated on top of the N Plaza, the Roof Terrace is a spacious wooden viewing deck whose exotic atmosphere makes it very popular with lovers. A recent attraction for courting couples is "Locks of Love," thousands of padlocks attached to the fence by romantic Seoulites symbolizing their undying affection.

Daejeon Science Museum

SUMMER 2017

The National Science Museum is a scientific culture facility which studies and exhibits various scientific materials. At its center is the Astronomical Hall, which is the largest dome in Korea. From here you can vividly see the phenomenon of the celestial sphere and the human development of space. It also has the only world-class space theater in Korea. The 242 seats are available on a first-come first-serve basis. It can re-create the appearance of a night sky, the highlight being the view of the starlight at the planetarium. The Astrovision is also a special visual device, giving a magnificent and realistic view of space development.

Sol International Culinary Art Department (SICA)

SUMMER 2017

A degree in culinary arts offers more than just an education in cooking fundamentals. It offers a wealth of opportunities in an exciting, fast-paced and growing industry. SICA offer a wide range of cooking classes from baking to wine tasting. All classes are taught in a 5-star facility at Woosong SICA building.

Busan Aquarium

SUMMER 2017

Busan Aquarium contains over 35,000 species of fish, algae, reptiles, and amphibians. This state-of-the-art facility is one of Korea's top aquariums. The aquarium covers an area of 36,000 m² and is spread over 3 underground levels and features an outdoor park. The third underground level boasts has a tunnel. The tunnel experience resembles a walk along the ocean floor with various sea creatures swimming above. This is a very popular area of the aquarium and is sure to amaze visitors. The simulator also stimulates the imagination and provides a unique feeling of life on the ocean floor.

Haeundae Beach

SUMMER 2017

Haeundae is 1.5 km long, 30-50m wide, and spans an area of 58,400 m². The white sand is rough and sticks easily to your skin. The sand of this beach is composed of sand that comes from Chuncheon Stream and shells that have been naturally eroded by the wind over time. Haeundae Beach is also famous for the various cultural events and festivals held throughout the year. At Haeundae Beach there is a Folk Square where you can enjoy traditional games such as neolttwigi (seesaw jumping), Korean wrestling, tuho (arrow throwing), tug-of-war and yutnori.

Samgyeopsal

SUMMER 2017

Samgyeopsal is a popular Korean dish that is commonly served as an evening meal. It consists of thick, fatty slices of pork belly meat. The meat, usually neither marinated nor seasoned, is cooked on a grill at the diners' table. Usually diners grill the meat themselves and eat directly from a grill. It is typically served with ssamjang, vegetables, and lettuce leaves to wrap it in.

Korean Fried Chicken

It's a fried chicken dish prepared in a Korean style. It is consumed as a meal, fast food at bars, or as an after meal snack in Korea. Korean fried chicken differs from typical American fried chicken by being fried twice. This results in the skin being crunchier and less greasy. The chickens are usually seasoned with spices, sugar, and salt, prior to and after being fried. The chicken is usually hand painted with a brush, to evenly coat the chicken with a thin layer of sauce. Pickled radishes, beer, and soju are often served with Korean fried chicken.

Samgyetang

SUMMER 2017

Samgyetang means ginseong chicken soup. It consists primarily of a whole chicken filled with various ingredients. Samgyetang is a warm soup for hot summer days. It is especially popular to eat this chicken soup on sambok (삼복) days, which are three distinct days of the lunar calendar which are commonly among the hottest summer and most sultry days in Korea.

Hanbok

SUMMER 2017

Hanbok is the representative example of traditional Korean dress. It is characterized by vibrant colors and simple lines without pockets.
