Gyeongbokgung Palace

SUMMER 2017

Gyeongbokgung was the main royal palace of the Joseon dynasty. Built in 1395, it is located in northern Seoul, South Korea. The largest of the Five Grand Palaces built by the Joseon dynasty, Gyeongbokgung served as the home of Kings of the Joseon dynasty, the Kings' households, as well as the government of Joseon.

Insadong

Insadong Street is one of the most memorable attractions in Seoul and represents the focal point of Korean traditional culture and crafts. Stores in Insa-dong specialize in a wide variety of goods that can only be purchased or appreciated in Korea: hanbok (traditional clothing), hanji (traditional paper), traditional teas, pottery, and folk crafts.

Myeongdong

SUMMER 2017

Myeong-dong is one of the primary shopping districts in Seoul. Many brand name shops and department stores line the streets and alleys. Common products for sale include clothes, shoes, and accessories. Unlike Namdaemun or Dongdaemun, many designer brands are sold in Myeong-dong. In addition, several major department stores have branches here. The department stores carry many premium labels and other fashionable goods at reasonable prices.

Namsan Tower

SUMMER 2017

Namsan Tower is 236.7 meter tower sits atop Namsan Mountain (243m). The observatory offers panoramic views of Seoul and the surrounding areas. Namsan Tower is the very place to enjoy the entire city of Seoul.

Situated on top of the N Plaza, the Roof Terrace is a spacious wooden viewing deck whose exotic atmosphere makes it very popular with lovers. A recent attraction for courting couples is "Locks of Love," thousands of padlocks attached to the fence by romantic Seoulites symbolizing their undying affection.

Sol International Culinary Art Department (SICA)

SUMMER 2017

A degree in culinary arts offers more than just an education in cooking fundamentals. It offers a wealth of opportunities in an exciting, fast-paced and growing industry. SICA offer a wide range of cooking classes from baking to wine tasting. All classes are taught in a 5-star facility at Woosong SICA building.

Samgyeopsal

SUMMER 2017

Samgyeopsal is a popular Korean dish that is commonly served as an evening meal. It consists of thick, fatty slices of pork belly meat. The meat, usually neither marinated nor seasoned, is cooked on a grill at the diners' table. Usually diners grill the meat themselves and eat directly from a grill. It is typically served with ssamjang, vegetables, and lettuce leaves to wrap it in.

Korean Fried Chicken

It's a fried chicken dish prepared in a Korean style. It is consumed as a meal, fast food at bars, or as an after meal snack in Korea. Korean fried chicken differs from typical American fried chicken by being fried twice. This results in the skin being crunchier and less greasy. The chickens are usually seasoned with spices, sugar, and salt, prior to and after being fried. The chicken is usually hand painted with a brush, to evenly coat the chicken with a thin layer of sauce. Pickled radishes, beer, and soju are often served with Korean fried chicken.

Samgyetang

SUMMER 2017

Samgyetang means ginseong chicken soup. It consists primarily of a whole chicken filled with various ingredients. Samgyetang is a warm soup for hot summer days. It is especially popular to eat this chicken soup on sambok (삼복) days, which are three distinct days of the lunar calendar which are commonly among the hottest summer and most sultry days in Korea.

Hanbok

SUMMER 2017

Hanbok is the representative example of traditional Korean dress. It is characterized by vibrant colors and simple lines without pockets.
